STUCK INSIDE £12.99

Written and Illustrated by Sally Anne Garland
40-page hardback picture book with jacket

Stuck Inside was inspired by the author's interest in the small world children inhabit, the way the simplest things can be so new and exciting, and how the best fun often begins when children are at their most bored. With delightful illustrations, this sweet and timely story of how Tilly and Toby entertain themselves during a storm will spark the imagination of any child who feels 'stuck.'

Sally Anne Garland grew up in the Highlands of Scotland. After studying Illustration and Graphic Design at Edinburgh College of Art she settled in Glasgow, where she currently lives with her partner and their son.

UNICORNS HAVE BAD MANNERS £12.99

Written by Rachel Halpern, Illustrated by Wendy Tan Shiau Wei
40-page hardback picture book with jacket

Nigel the dinosaur can't wait to have tea with a unicorn. He's sure her manners will be dainty and refined. But when they sit down to eat, they have very different ideas about proper behaviour! Can they find common ground, and have some not-too-messy fun with their food along the way? Kids will love this silly story about manners, friendship, and cultural differences.

Rachel Halpern is a Chicago-based author and editor. When she isn't writing, Rachel enjoys doodling, drinking milkshakes, and playing with her dog, whose manners are even worse than a unicorn's.

Wendy Tan Shiau Wei is an illustrator based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Over the last few years, she has contributed to numerous animation productions and advertisements. Now, her passion for storytelling has led her down a new path: illustrating children's books.

IT'S HER STORY: MARIE CURIE £7.99

Graphic Novel Written by Kaara Kallen, Illustrated by Rosie Baker
48-page hardback book

Marie Curie was the brilliant, trailblazing scientist who discovered radium and coined the term radioactivity. This is her story. This book is part of an extendable series featuring amazing, inspirational women in full-colour, graphic novel format, which aims to bridge the gap between picture books and graphic novels to appeal to the 6-9 year age group.

Kaara Kallen is a Chicago-based writer, editor, teacher, learner, and activist. When she is not writing about inspiring scientist-humanitarians, she is working to make the world safer for wildlife and people.

Rosie Baker grew up in Dorset, surrounded by nature and a creative family. Currently Rosie enjoys living by the sea and drawing every day surrounded by her many plants.

IT'S HER STORY: ROSA PARKS £7.99

Graphic Novel Written by Lauren Burke, Illustrated by Shane Clester

Rosa Parks was the courageous thinker, leader and social justice activist known as the Mother of the Civil Rights Movement. This is her story. This book is part of an extendable series featuring inspirational women. A bust of Rosa Parks has become the latest addition to President Biden's Oval Office, newly decorated with portraits and busts of some of the most influential leaders in American history.

Lauren Burke is a writer and editor from Chicago, Illinois. Her work focuses on women's history, travel, and classic literature.

Largely self-taught, Shane has been a professional illustrator for over 15 years. Initially working in comics and storyboards, Shane has since transitioned to his real passion—children's books.
